

We will use your personal information within the scope of the following purpose of use with providing GMO miner B2.

1. For the purpose of operation of relating to provision of this service including notification concerning individual authentication, operation, request invoices, confirmation concerning settlement, credit management, change of fee etc. also including change, addition, abolition or contract renewal and updating of information of this service.
2. To provide information about usage and environment of the service.
3. To send out documents relevant to the operation and provision of the service and to provide information related to the service by telephone, email, fax, etc.
4. To respond to your questions about our services.
5. To register to GMO-Z.com Switzerland AG or GMO Internet Group services other than this service, such as content delivery and information processing services, etc.
6. To register to services offered by a company to which GMO-Z.com Switzerland AG provides services and to provide information pertaining to our services.
7. For the purpose of analysis and to conduct surveys with the objective of improving service and other services provided by GMO-Z.com Switzerland AG and affiliated companies.
8. For the purpose of researching and developing new products and services related to this service whose that GMO-Z.com Switzerland AG or GMO Internet Group.
9. To provide systems consultation relating to the use of this service.
10. To develop, maintain, and operate hardware equipment related to this service.
11. To conduct campaigns associated with this service.
12. For the purposes of billing, accounting, invoicing, and debt collection.
(Includes cases in which personal information may be handled by a third party.)
13. To create and analyze statistics for business analysis.
14. To conduct market research and other investigative research in the telecommunications or mining business.
15. To audit and monitor the handling of personal information and respond to requests for disclosure under the laws.
16. To provide to third parties (only parties that have been approved to handle personal information).
17. To manage the contractual relationship with third parties.

18. To disclose information requested by Swiss, Japanese and international public institutions.

19. To achieve any other purposes within the scope of the consent by you.